INTER-ISLAND HAPPENINGS

KOHALA, May 29.—The Midget contains the following budget of a week's happenings.

Paauhau.

Quite an excitement was caused on the Kalapa part of the plantation by a cane fire on Tuesday. There was a regular gale blowing at the time the fire started from a home-steader's land, and the flames seemed to jump fifty to a hundred feet at a time. The house of another home-steader was surrounded by the fire at one time and it looked as if there would be little chance of saving it, but fortunately the fire was got under control in time.

Mr. Smith, manager, has been very much "cold sick" for the last ten days. This sort of thing is not indigenous to Paauhau, and the malady must be of imported origin.

Mr. De Colto, of Paauhau Store, was a witness of the sad accident to a Japanese driver at Honokaa, on Sunday. Mr. De Colto saw the mule dragging the man along after it, and tried to stop it, but the animal swerved to one side and got past him, to be stopped a little later on.

A party of Honokaa and Paauhau gentlemen went into Hilo on Saturday to be initiated into the mysteries of Free Masonry. When these have taken their Master's degree, there ought to be enough members of the brotherhood to start a lodge in Hamakua.

Honokaa.

A short time ago one of our most prominent property holders and citizens, Mr. P. Hart, lost a number of children through the bubonic plague, and his home had to be burned. Through the good work of Tom Rickard, a poor boy, going around, and assisted by Mr. George Kaiser, and with the help of the good managers of the different plantations in Hamakua, and the citizens and friends of Mr. Hart, the community has succeeded in building a new and commodious house for him and his family.

Children's Sunday.

Children's Day will be observed in Kohala by a union service of all the Sunday schools. This will be held in Iole Church, at 11 o'clock Sunday, June 2.

Over three hundred children are expected to be present and take part in the exercises. The offering for the day will be devoted to helping defray the transportation expenses of the children. As they are coming from all over the district this is no small item.

Won't you show by your presence and material aid that you are interested in this gathering? Should any one wish to make a present to this transportation fund, donations will be received by Mrs. McDougall, Mrs. Bond, Mr. Naipo and Mr. Nahiwa.

Kohala.

It is rumored that Charles E. King's glee club will be in Kohala June 10, and will give an entertainment that night. If such should be the case, Kohala should turn out en masse to hear them, for you'll more than get your money's worth.

Mrs. Geo. Barker gave a birthday supper to her husband on Thursday evening. Mr. Barker has reached his fifty-ninth year. He has seen a large part of the world. He can beat Edison's Talking Machine, when it comes to that business. He still has a rolicking spirit, somewhat stubborn at times. The guests of the evening were taught a few true points on Hawaiian history from him.

Rev. Woo Ye Bew and family took the boat for Honolulu last Friday.

The daughter, Mary Woo, will graduate from the Normal School this year. Kaahue, the Niuli station master, is reported to have stolen a bride last Saturday night.

Mr. Nahiwa is drilling a children's chorus to give "The Children's Messiah" again next year, with some choruses from the real "Messiah" by the Choral Society. Anyone wishing to own a copy of "The Messiah" should leave an order, with $1, with Mrs. H. H. Renton before she leaves, and she will secure the books.

Mr. Peter Beamer, of Hilo, is on one of his regular tours of Kohala. He came over from Waimea Thursday. Mrs. Beamer is with him and two Japanese salesmen. Mr. and Mrs. Beamer were guests of the Atkins and Williamses at Makapala.

A horse patiently stood between the shafts of a buggy. An oversight on the part of some one; he had not hooked the traces to the shaft. A couple got into the buggy. The driver said, "Get up!" The faithful horse went; the buggy balked. One said, "Oh my, the horse is a pig!"

Why not plan for a Fourth of July celebration in Kohala? With the help of a few prizes, it would be easy to have athletic contests by the Filipinos, Japanese, and others—exhibitions of their national sports—a baseball game and in the evening a concert of patriotic songs, the singers in Colonial costumes. Who seconds the motion?

We understand that Mr. J. P. Woods is planning to build a $10,000 house at Kaahue. The lumber will be ordered from Honolulu, and as soon as it arrives, probably early in July, work will begin.

We, also, quaked with that earthquake Wednesday night last week; just a playful little shakelet.

On May 18, Mr. Olaf Sorensen, assistant manager of the Porensen, was wedded in Honolulu, to Miss Juliette Hartwell, daughter of Chief Justice Hartwell. The bride and groom were given a reception at Waimea, later, which was attended by a number of Kohala people. The Midget extends congratulations.

We learn that a new garage is being built at Union Mill, which is to house an agency of von Mamm-Young Co., Honolulu. It will be in charge of a Japanese, with a branch at Niuli.

Hawii Ice Works is putting up a fine quality of treated water, in great variety. We can speak a good word especially for their ginger ale. It tickles the gastric nerve just right.

Rev. Mr. Mori, pastor of Anuanu avenue Japanese Church, arrived in Kohala last week, as the representative of the Hawaiian Board in studying the work being done here, and the feasibility of building a house for the evangelist.

The ladies of the King's Daughters conducted a rummage sale at the Hawaiian chapel, Kapaau, last week. It was a success, as their affairs always are.

It's all right for the sanitary inspector to remove the microbe trap from his own upper lip.

Besides the Sunday school institute which he had planned to hold at Waimea, Mr. Judd also held one at Kapaau, on his way back home.

That was a mighty welcome shower that fell on Sunday night.

The new building reported in our last issue as being erected opposite the butcher shop at Hilo, belongs to Hawii plantation. It is to be a sort of combined theater and dance hall, and is to have provision for displaying moving pictures. It is for the direct benefit of the laborers of the plantation. This is certainly the "right idea," for anything that will make the life of the plantation laborer better and pleasanter will eventually redound to the benefit of those who have the farsightedness to do everything reasonable for their workmen.

News was received last Saturday of the birth of a daughter to Mrs. Edgar D. Congdon (nee Miss Edith Jones) in New York city, on May 9.

Mr. Hori, who was here last week, representing The Hawaiian Board, is endeavoring to awaken interest in day nurseries on the various plantations, where the babies of Japanese mothers can be cared for by competent nurses, for a nominal sum, leaving the mothers free to work. It is a plan that has worked well on other islands, and among the immigrant and other working women in Eastern cities.

About eighty men are now at work on the Kohala Ditch extension, making tunnels. In a short time work will begin on the reservoirs.

Pahala.

Mr. E. F. Bishop made the round trip on the steamship Wilhelmnia, visiting Pahala while on the Big Island.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney spent Saturday at Pahala.

Mr. C. M. Cooke and Mrs. Dora Isenberg are making a tour of Hawaii. They have been several days the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ogg and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolters.

Our Supervisor has now covered quite a piece of the Volcano road with a-a. Once this is rolled, we shall have a fine boulevard.

Waimea.

Mr. D. McAllister, of Waikii, the prosperous "corn" station of the Parker ranch, was a blithe departing passenger on Friday's Mauna Kea for a visit to the metropolis. We all hope he has a royal time!

Mr. H. A. Truslow, the congenial bookkeeper of the ranch, at last, after ceaseless toil and persistence, can claim to have, on his ample grounds near his cozy bungalow, one of the very best tennis courts in the country round! Visions now loom up, in the minds of "we Waimeas," of perhaps having one of our number soon on his or her way to compete in the tournaments at Hilo. (Ah, such a chance!)

Miss Dorothy Livingston has returned after a delightful week's visit with Mrs. Jack Low in Kukuhaele, charming Mr. Bryan Girdler also helped to make her stay the joyful one it was. (ahem)

The Hakalaus Saw Hot Baseball. It was a hot and most exciting game played May 19 at 1:45 p. m. on the Hakalaus baseball ground, between the Honomu and Hakalaus baseball teams.

The Hakalaus really had some close rubs against the Honomu "Greens." The Greens hadn't handled a ball for a coon's age; it was only three weeks ago since they got into trim again.

The Hakalaus played a good fair game, and went ahead at the start; while the "Greens" bunched all their scores but two in the last two innings. The score was 10 to 6 in favor of the "Greens."

Noah's Ark Found?

A relic of the past, that once burnt up the muddy roads of Kohala, made a dying trip, recently, from the factory at Kapaau to the innermost end of Kohala. Greatest sensation of the year! A flagpole stuck impudently up into the air from behind. It went so fast that the flag was lost on the road. It was either "The Flying Dutchman," or the "Phantom Phord"—which?

Its horn he-hawed as it met every Jack-of-Kona on the road. Some faces it met were filled with horror; some were frightened; some wondered. It fact the Sanitary Inspector, and he immediately condemned it.

This was shocking to the chauffeur's feelings. To was lucky, however, that he did not meet "Hen" Beckley and have to say for all the damage done to his mar-velousized rears.

"Noah's ark," as some called it, tried to steal past The Midget office, but the eagle-eyed Midget devil spied it. "Toot, toot, toot!" saluted the limb of Satan. "Toot, toot, toot!" answered the crazy old Rip Van Winkle on wheels.

It sped on. At Kalopphi the gas-oil engine quivered and ran out of breath. But water from a stream was substituted.

On it sped, scattering chickens right and left, as it made a wild dash through Halawa town, while all the people rubbernecked.

Arrived at last at Niuli, wonder of wonders! It balked at Makapala, where an expert from San Francisco is putting it into shape with a Tomtom.

It will appear next month. Look for it! Get your life insured! We mention no names. Now heave a brick at us!

Central Kona.

Mr. L. Macfarlane has got an auto-truck.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wallace are going to Honolulu, and expect to be away about six weeks.

Miss Amy Greenwell will be hostess at the Greenwell mountain home for a week. Her guests are: Miss Kopke, Miss Johnson, Miss Wallace, Mr. Arthur Greenwell. The party will enjoy the cool and quiet place.

Mahukona.

Two natives went out fishing on Saturday evening, May 18. They caught a shark, about three feet long. Many people who had not before seen a shark, went to take a look. The shark is still lying on the rocks.

Mr. Frank Burkhardt, who has been a foreman for Mr. A. A. Wilson, has left his position, for Honolulu, on account of sickness. Mr. W. Hull is taking his place.

Papaaloa.

On May 17, Mr. Joseph E. Swain and brother James Swain, John de Caires and Mr. Antonio Roberto surprised their old acquaintances by calling on them unexpectedly.

Mr. Joseph E. Swain had left for the Coast a very short time ago while the others have been there for some years. After all, there is no place like Hawaii to live, they said.

Mr. Joseph E. Swain will be employed by Mr. John T. Brown, to run the stone crusher which will crush the stone for the Kihalaui homestead road.

The Kihalaui homestead road is progressing very slowly, as the rock has to be carried from a distance.

Mr. H. Meyer, the Waipunalet butcher, is to go to Hilo to have an operation performed on his shoulder.

The promoters of the Papaaloa Holy Ghost Feast are advised that liquors will not be allowed at the feast, as predicted by Rev. Father Idehald, pastor of the Catholic church at Papaaloa.

Pohakupuka.

The railroad bridge at the mouth of the Mauiha tunnel, on the Hilo side, is under construction. It will be over a thousand feet long, and will have a height of 150 feet, making it the largest bridge on the extension. It is estimated that it will take nearly three months to complete it.

Mr. M. A. Oliveira, of Kabinano, has announced that he will in a short time make headway for his old country. Good luck Mr. Oliveira.

The new immigrants have arrived and a number of them have been located at the Waikamalo new camp, had been built for the purpose.

The principal of the Pohakupuka School has been told that as soon as the new location for the school is gotten by the department, the supervisors will immediately do the rest.

Hamakua.

Mr. John K. White, of E. N. Holmes' store, is now the happy dad of a large baby boy, who arrived last week to make three a company in that home.

When the Wailele docked at the Kukuhaele landing, last Saturday, it was seen that the popular purser, "Doc" Howard, was not at his post of duty. His place has been filled by Willie Kekuewa, one of Kohala's boys.

Bel fishing, by some Japs and Hawaiians, has been the exciting event along some parts of our coast during some calm nights. The catch has been large, and several eels measured nine to twelve feet long.

The road men, under some experienced lunas, are putting the road below M. De Fontes' place at Kapulena in a better condition.

Kapoho.

The safe in the depot has gone on a strike and has refused to unlock. As there is no time lock on it, we think it must have struck for more money. A safe expert is expected out here soon to adjust the difficulty.

Mr. and Mrs. Weatherby and daughter Helen, of Olan, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lyman.

Miss Elderts, of Kapaou, is here visiting friends.

Waiohinu.

Mr. Thos. Cook, of Hilo, was engaged last week in surveying the pipe line intended to carry water from the Waiohinu springs to the Kamaoa homesteads.

Mr. Sam Kauhane and family are present living in their new home on the homestead mauka of Waiohinu.

Mr. J. F. Hackford and wife motored through Waiohinu on Monday.

South Kona.

As one guarding all incoming vehicles, passing Papa School from Kapaau, Mr. E. K. Iona, teacher at Papa School, must be a busy fellow; for he has to see that no fruits are brought in from Kau.

This is one of the methods the promoters of Kona are carrying out in the fight against the Mediterranean fly pest.

The whole police force of our district hurried past the Alae School, May 22, in pursuit of the murderer of a Japanese in Hamakua.

ARMY NOTES

Major W. P. Wooten, Corps of Engineers, has been relieved from duty in charge of construction work at Waikiki.

VIGOROUS OLD AGE

Even ruddy-cheeked youth is not more beautiful than the mature vigor of healthy old age. This, however, is not seen so often as it should be, partly because many persons mistakenly suppose that weakness and ill-health are inseparable from ripe maturity of years.

Yet in the majority of cases enfeebled old persons require nothing but the simple, natural treatment afforded by which acts by increasing the appetite, aiding digestion and putting more iron into the blood. It has neither the taste nor smell of cod liver oil, but is as pleasant to the taste as a superior table wine. It is as valuable to old persons as to young ones and many of its most remarkable effects have been achieved with the aged. Get it at your druggists and be sure you get STEARNS'—the genuine.
